

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Marvin E. Wingert graduated from the University of South Dakota, pursued his medical degree at the University of South Dakota Medical School and completed his medical training at the University of Wisconsin Medical School, after which he interned at Charles T. Miller Hospital in St. Paul, Minnesota; and,

WHEREAS, In July of 1959, Dr. Wingert hung out his shingle in Garretson, South Dakota, and has been that community's sole practitioner for the past 25 years; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to working 18-hour days and continuing to make house calls, Dr. Wingert has devoted his "spare" time to the volunteer fire department, the Catholic Forresters, St. Rose of Lima Church, the Garretson Commercial Club and the pro-life movement; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Wingert is the staff physician for Palisade Manor Nursing Home and is a staff member of McKennan and Sioux Valley Hospitals and belongs to the Seventh District Medical Society and the American Medical Association; and,

WHEREAS, In appreciation of Dr. Wingert's past 25 years of service and in anticipation of his next 25, the people of Garretson, South Dakota, are honoring Dr. Wingert on Sunday, July 15; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the contributions Dr. Wingert has made to the medical community, the people of Garretson and the community of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 15, 1984, as

DR. MARVIN E. WINGERT DAY

In South Dakota and I join the people of South Dakota in voicing a resounding thank you for the years of dedicated medical service and community service Dr. Wingert has contributed to Garretson and South Dakota.

ATTEST:

Alice Kumbert
ALICE KUMBERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
